Worship the Lord with gladness
Come before Him with joyful songs

PSALM 100:2

SEPTEMBER 19

2021

WELCOME

We are delighted that you are worshipping with us this Lord's Day. Our hope is that you know the saving power and love of our King and Savior Jesus Christ as you worship with us. If you have any questions about Trinity, please fill out a visitor questionnaire, visit our church website, or contact Pastor Jared.

ABOUT TRINITY

Trinity Presbyterian Church exists for the glory of God. We seek to glorify God in three ways: to serve God in joyful, reverent worship; to serve God's people in discipleship and fellowship; and to serve the world in gospel witness.

REFLECTIVE READING

Corporate worship is a time when we come together and God audibly, through the ministry of the word, reminds us of the important reality that He is king and we are His subjects. He is Lord, and we are servants. He is shepherd, and we are sheep. He is God, and we are His creatures – “God is in heaven, and you on earth” (Ecc. 5:2). So we must do what He says. Since submission doesn't come naturally to us, we need to learn it. It isn't easy, so we need to work at it. Worship is where we learn and are trained in the disciplines that are crucial to the Christian life: trust, obedience, submission – or, in a word, faith.

Psalm 111:1-3

Praise the LORD!

I will give thanks to the LORD with my whole heart, in the company of the upright, in the congregation.

Great are the works of the LORD, studied by all who delight in them.

Full of splendor and majesty is his work, and his righteousness endures forever.

Do not fear those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul. Rather fear him who can destroy both soul and body in hell.

Confession of Sin

Father, we confess how easily we are gripped by the wrong kind of fear. We fear those who have the power to harm our bodies, forgetting that you are in control. We fear having too little, forgetting your promise to provide. We fret over the future, forgetting it is in your hands. We get anxious about the many dangers in this fallen world, forgetting that this is our Father's world. Forgive us for our faithless fears.

Lord Jesus, you lived perfectly with the right kind of fear, possessing the Spirit of knowledge and the fear of the Lord. Your delight was in the fear of the LORD, so you feared no one else. When evil men did their worst, nailing you to a tree and killing your body, you still entrusted your soul into your Father's hands. You suffered for our sins, so we never have to fear that fate.

Holy Spirit, teach us the fear of the Lord that is the beginning of wisdom. Enable us to resist the constant pressure to conform to the values of this world, and draw us to pray whenever we face troubles or joys in life. Help us to walk alongside each other in difficult times, bearing one another's burdens and reminding each other of the certain outcome of the race that is set before us: a joyous welcome into our Father's arms. Amen.

GOD ASSURES US OF HIS GRACEThe Announcement of Forgiveness

Acts 2:23-24

This Jesus, delivered up according to the definite plan and foreknowledge of God, you crucified and killed by the hands of lawless men. God raised him up, loosing the pangs of death, because it was not possible for him to be held by it.

PRAY FOR

- God to use the present crisis to lead many to Jesus. Pray for hard, rebellious hearts to be changed. Pray for anxious, fearful hearts to find rest and peace in Christ alone.
- Wisdom for our government officials.
- Protection for all, especially for those made most vulnerable by age or infirmity. Pray for the protection of health-care workers.
- God's provision for so many facing financial hardship through loss of employment, reduced employment, or closed businesses.
- Our church elders and deacons as we pursue faithfulness to God and as we seek to care for church members in the present moment.
